Increase in production of textiles is augmenting the polyester staple fiber market demand. Polyester fiber is the most widely used chemical fiber in the textile sector.

Players operating in the polyester staple fiber industry landscape are investing in recycling to help reduce plastic pollution. They are also launching advanced production processes that offer savings in energy, water, and raw material consumption.

Indian Polyester Fibre Industry

Market Overview

India Polyester Staple Fibre Market has reached USD1.54 billion by 2023 and is anticipated to project robust growth in the forecast period with a CAGR of 4.25% through 2029. Polyester Staple Fibre (PSF) is extensively used in spinning and other textile applications due to its durability, cost-effectiveness, and versatility. In the Indian PSF market, there are two main categories: solid and hollow products. Solid PSF is widely popular in traditional textile manufacturing, known for its strength and resilience. On the other hand, hollow PSF is gaining traction for its unique properties such as lightweightness and excellent insulation.

However, the widespread use of synthetic fibers like polyester has raised environmental concerns. These fibers are non-biodegradable, posing a significant threat to our ecosystems. To address this issue, the industry must focus on innovation and invest in recycling technologies to ensure the sustainability of PSF production. By adopting these recycling methods, we can minimize the environmental impact and promote a circular economy.

Looking ahead, the future of the Indian PSF market appears promising. The market is expected to witness substantial growth due to rising consumer demand and advancements in manufacturing technologies. Additionally, the growing emphasis on sustainable fashion and the development of recycled PSF present exciting new avenues for growth and expansion. As the industry continues to evolve, it is crucial to prioritize sustainability and explore eco-friendly alternatives to meet the demands of both consumers and the environment.

However, there can be no assurance that there could still not be some deviation from prescribed quality standards due to factors such as human error.

12. Changes in technology may render our current technologies obsolete or require us to make substantial investments.

Modernization and technology upgradation is essential to reduce costs and increase output. Our technology and machineries may become obsolete or may not be upgraded timely, hampering our operations and financial conditions and we may lose our competitive edge. However, we have paid the due amount along with interest to comply with the provisions of the law. Although, the Company has taken following steps to address such delays such as:

18. Our company's Board of Directors does not have any experience of listed companies.

Our company's Board of Directors consists of both executive and non-executive directors, and neither of our executive directors does have any experience of listed companies. This inexperience gives rise risks including not limited to compliance risk making us more prone to fines and penalties or notices from regulatory authorities which in turn give rise to reputational risk and governance risk. Furthermore, directors may not provide effective guidance or give erroneous disclosures or intimation as required.

To lessen the effects of this risk and considering the importance of board diversity and background of directors to make quality contributions we have appointed Independent Directors which are either currently holding a position in listing entity or were holding a position of Director or Key Managerial Personnel, thus bring on board their current and past experience of working of listed entities, will assist the executive directors in facing the challenges arising from their inexperience.

for our products. An inaccurate forecast of demand for any product can result in the unavailability/surplus of raw material. The insurance policies are renewed periodically to ensure that the coverage is adequate, however, our insurance policies do not cover all risks. There can be no assurance that our insurance policies will be adequate to cover the losses in respect of which the insurance has been availed. If we suffer a significant uninsured loss or if insurance claim in respect of the subject-matter of insurance is not accepted or any insured loss suffered by us significantly exceeds our insurance coverage, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely.

Issue Related Risk Factors

42. There are certain restrictions on daily movements in the price of Equity Shares, which may adversely affect a shareholder's ability to sell, or the price at which it can sell, Equity Shares at a particular point in time.

Following the Issue, we will be subject to a daily circuit breaker imposed by NSE, which does not allow transactions beyond specified increases or decreases in the price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index-based, market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI on Indian stock exchanges. The percentage limit on our circuit breakers will be set by the stock exchange based on the historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker will limit the upward and downward movements in the price of the Equity Shares. As a result of this circuit breaker, no assurance can be given regarding your ability to sell your Equity Shares or the price at which you may be able to sell your Equity Shares at any particular time.

43. After this Issue, the price of the Equity Shares may be highly volatile, or an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop.

The price of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges may fluctuate as a result of the factors, including:

- Volatility in the Indian and global capital market;
- Company's results of operations and financial performance;
- Performance of Company's competitors,
- Adverse media reports on Company or pertaining to our Industry;
- Changes in our estimates of performance or recommendations by financial analysts; and
- Significant developments in India's economic and fiscal policies;

Current valuations may not be sustainable in the future and may also not be reflective of future valuations for our industry and our Company. There has been no public market for Equity Shares and the prices of the Equity Shares may fluctuate after this Issue. There can be no assurance that an active trading market for the Equity Shares will develop or be sustained after this Issue or that the price at which the Equity Shares are initially traded will correspond to the price at which the Equity Shares will trade in the market subsequent to this Issue.

44. Market price of our share will be decided by market forces and issue price of equity share may not be indicative of the market price our share price after the issue.

After listing and trading permission of equity shares, the price of the shares shall be driven by free market forces. The market price of a company's share is determined by the forces of supply and demand in the stock market. These forces are influenced by a variety of factors, including the company's financial performance, industry trends, economic conditions, and investor sentiment.

When a company issues equity shares, it sets an issue price based on various factors such as the company's valuation, the prevailing market conditions, and the demand for its shares. However, the issue price is not necessarily indicative of the market price of the shares after the issue.

Once the shares are listed on the stock exchange, their price is determined by the forces of supply and demand in the market. If there is strong demand for the shares, the price may rise above the issue price, and if there is weak demand, the price may fall below the issue price.

Therefore, while the issue price of equity shares provides a starting point for the company's valuation, it is not necessarily a reliable indicator of the market price of the shares after the issue. Investors should carefully evaluate all relevant factors and information before making investment decisions in the stock market.

External Risk Factors

45. Outbreaks of contagious diseases, such as the recent outbreak of COVID-19, may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

India experienced multiple waves of COVID-19 which had impacted global supply chains and resulted in shortages of materials and components used in the manufacturing operations and an inability to meet the manufacturing targets and this impact continues till date. The COVID-19 pandemic had resulted in restrictions on travel and transportation and prolonged closures of workplaces, businesses and schools, with employees being asked to work from home and citizens being advised to stay at home. Consequently, there was a significant disruption in attendance at the manufacturing facilities.

There can be no assurance that any future outbreak of contagious diseases will not have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects.

46. Changes in the Government Policy could adversely affect economic conditions in India generally and our business in particular.

Our business, and the market price and liquidity of our Equity Shares, may be affected by interest rates, changes in Government policy, taxation, social and civil unrest and other political, economic or other developments in or affecting India. Elimination or substantial change of policies or the introduction of policies that negatively affect the Company's business could cause its results of operations to suffer. Any significant change in India's economic policies could disrupt business and economic conditions in India generally and the Company's business in particular.

47. A slowdown in economic growth in India could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

We are dependent on domestic, regional and global economic and market conditions. Our performance, growth and market price of our Equity Shares are and will be dependent to a large extent on the health of the economy in which we operate. Demand for our services may be adversely affected by an economic downturn in domestic, regional and global economies. Economic growth in the country in which we operate is affected by various factors including domestic consumption and savings, balance of trade movements, namely export demand, global economic uncertainty and liquidity crisis, volatility in exchange currency rates. Consequently, any future slowdown in the Indian economy could harm our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

48. Inflation in India could have an adverse effect on our profitability and if significant, on our financial condition.

Inflation is typically impacted by factors such as governmental policies, regulations, commodity prices, liquidity and global economic environment. Any change in the government or a change in the economic and deregulation policies could adversely affect the inflation rates. Continued high rates of inflation may increase our costs such as salaries, travel costs and related allowances, which are typically linked to general price levels. There can be no assurance that we will be able to pass on any additional costs to our clients or that our revenue will increase proportionately corresponding to such inflation. Accordingly, high rates of inflation in India could have an adverse effect on our profitability and, if significant, on our financial condition.

49. Taxes and other levies imposed by the Government of India or other State Governments, as well as other financial policies and regulations, may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Taxes and other levies imposed by the Central or State Governments in India that affect our industry include STT, GST, income tax and other taxes, duties or surcharges introduced on a permanent or temporary basis from time to time. Imposition of any other taxes by the Central and the State Governments may adversely affect our results of operations.

50. You may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of capital gains on the sale of our Equity Shares.

Capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares within 12 months in an Indian company are generally taxable in India. Any gain realised on the sale of listed equity shares on a stock exchange held for more than 12 months will not be subject to capital gain being long term capital gain amounting to upto one lakhs rupees provided Securities Transaction Tax ("STT") is paid on the transaction. STT is levied on and collected by a domestic stock exchange on which equity shares are sold. Any gain realised on the sale of equity shares held for more than 12 months to an Indian resident, which are sold other than on a recognized stock exchange and on which no STT has been paid, is subject to long term capital gains tax in India. Further, any gain realised on the sale of listed equity shares held for a period of 12 months or less will be subject to short term capital gains tax in India. Capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares is exempt from taxation in India where an exemption from taxation in India is provided under a treaty between India and the country of which the seller is resident.

Generally, Indian tax treaties do not limit India's ability to impose tax on capital gains. As a result, residents of other countries may be liable to pay tax in India as well as in their own jurisdiction on a gain on the sale of equity shares.

51. Natural calamities could have a negative impact on the Indian economy and cause our Company's business to suffer.

India has experienced natural calamities such as earthquakes, tsunami, floods etc. in recent years. The extent and severity of these natural disasters determine their impact on the Indian economy. Prolonged spells of abnormal rainfall or other natural calamities could have a negative impact on the Indian economy, which could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations as well as the price of the Equity Shares.

52. Terrorist attacks, civil unrests and other acts of violence or war involving India or other countries could adversely affect the financial markets, our business, financial condition and the price of our Equity Shares.

Any major hostilities involving India or other acts of violence, including civil unrest or similar events that are beyond our control, could have a material adverse effect on India's economy and our business. Incidents such as the terrorist attacks, other incidents such as those in US, Indonesia, Madrid and London, and other acts of violence may adversely affect the Indian stock markets where our Equity Shares will trade the global equity markets as well generally. Such acts could negatively impact business sentiment as well as trade between countries, which could adversely affect our Company's business and profitability. Additionally, such events could have a material adverse effect on the market for securities of Indian companies, including the Equity Shares.

A. 400 KLD (Kilo liters per day) Capacity Effluent Treatment Plant, Ultrafiltration (UF) And Reverse Osmosis (Ro) Plant, Erection and Commissioning (Equipment Erection, Piping Fabrication & Erection and Commissioning):

An effluent treatment plant (ETP), ultrafiltration (UF) system, and reverse osmosis (RO) plant are all components or processes commonly used in wastewater treatment and water purification.

An ETP is a facility made to handle industrial effluent or wastewater before it is recycled or released into the environment. An ETP's main objective is to rid wastewater of impurities, pollutants, and dangerous materials in order to comply with regulations and avoid polluting the environment.

The Ultrafiltration (UF) System is a membrane-based separation technique that is employed to extract suspended particles, colloids, bacteria, viruses, and macromolecules from liquid.

Ions, dissolved salts, and other solutes are eliminated from water via reverse osmosis, a water purification technique that employs a semi-permeable membrane. Using RO to produce highly purified water for industrial processes, drinking water treatment, and wastewater reuse is a popular application for the desalination of brackish and seawater.

At present our water requirement for our operations is approx. 100 KLD (Kilo Liters Per day). With the installation of the proposed PET bottle washline, our per day requirement will exceed 250 to 300KLD (Kilo Liters per day). With the installation of this proposed effluent treatment plant, we will be able to recycle and reuse our current water supply, which otherwise would be met by external water sources or permission from authorities to meet our intended requirement.

The detailed cost of each of the plant and machinery used in water treatment plant is as mentioned below:

S No.	Particulars	Amount (in INR)
1.	Effluent Treatment Plant (ETP) of 400 KLD Capacity	1,08,30,000.00

GLOBAL OUTLOOK

Disinflation amid Economic Resilience

Economic activity was surprisingly resilient during the global disinflation of 2022–23. Growth in employment and incomes has held steady as favorable demand and supply developments have supported major economies, despite rising central bank interest rates aimed at restoring price stability. As inflation converges toward target levels and central banks pivot toward policy easing, a tightening of fiscal policies aimed at curbing high government debt levels, with higher taxes and lower government spending, is expected to weigh on growth. The pace of expansion is also expected to remain low by historical standards as a result of factors including the long-term consequences of the COVID-19 pandemic, Russia’s invasion of Ukraine, weak growth in productivity, and increasing geoeconomic fragmentation.

In late 2023, headline inflation neared its prepandemic level in most economies for the first time since the start of the global inflation surge (Figure 1.1). In the last quarter of 2023, headline inflation for advanced economies was 2.3 percent on a quarter-over-quarter annualized basis, down from a peak of 9.5 percent in the second quarter of 2022. For emerging market and developing economies, inflation was 9.9 percent in the last quarter of 2023, down from a peak of 13.7 percent in the first quarter of 2022, but this average was driven by high inflation in a few countries; for the median emerging market and developing economy, inflation declined to 3.9 percent. This progress notwithstanding, inflation is not yet at target in most economies.

As global inflation descended from its peak, economic activity grew steadily, defying warnings of stagflation and global recession. During 2022 and 2023, global real GDP rose by a cumulative 6.7 percent.

The resilience in global economic activity was compatible with falling inflation thanks to a postpandemic expansion on the supply side. A greater-than-expected rise in the labor force amid robust employment growth supported activity and disinflation in advanced economies and several large emerging market and middle-income economies. The labor force expansion reflected, in some economies, increased inflows of migrants, with faster growth in the foreign-born than in the domestic-born labor force since 2021, as well as higher labor force participation rates. Exceptions to this pattern include China, where labor market weakness, in the context of subdued demand, was broad based across sectors, and lower-income countries, where supply-side challenges held job creation back. Greater-than-expected additions to the stock of physical capital, with business investment responding to the strength in product demand, further bolstered the supply side in most regions, with exceptions including the euro area, where interest-rate-sensitive business investment, particularly in manufacturing, was subdued.

The price of energy fell faster than expected from its peak, in part as a result of increased non-OPEC (Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries) oil production and increased natural gas output, most notably in the United States. Rising exports of Russian oil on account of the expanding non-Western-aligned oil tanker fleet carrying Russian oil and Russia's setting up its own maritime insurance added further to the world energy supply.

Interest Rates Restrictive, but Set to Fall

To counter rising inflation, major central banks have raised policy interest rates to levels estimated as restrictive. As a result, mortgage costs have increased and credit availability is generally tight, resulting in difficulties for firms refinancing their debt, rising corporate bankruptcies, and subdued business and residential investment in several economies. The commercial real estate sector, including office markets, is under especially strong pressure in some economies, with rising defaults and lower investment and valuations, reflecting the combined effects of higher borrowing costs and the shift toward remote work since the pandemic.

However, despite concerns, a global economic downturn caused by a sharp rise in policy rates has not materialized.

The average maturity and share of mortgages subject to fixed rates increased, moderating the near-term impact of rate hikes. At the same time, there is substantial heterogeneity in the degree of the monetary policy pass-through to mortgages and housing markets across countries.

Nevertheless, the cooling effects of high policy rates are intensifying in several economies. Fixed-rate mortgages are resetting, the stock of pandemic savings available to soften the impact on households has declined in advanced economies, and with inflation expectations falling, real policy rates are rising even where central banks have not changed nominal rates.

At the same time, with inflation moving toward targets, market expectations that policy rates will decline have generally contributed to a decline in long-term borrowing rates, rising equity markets, and an easing in overall global financial conditions since last October, although funding is still more expensive than before the pandemic. Central banks that raised policy rates earlier, including those in Brazil and Chile, have already cut them substantially since the second half of 2023. With expectations of lower interest rates in advanced economies, the appetite for assets in emerging market and developing economies has picked up, and sovereign spreads on risk-free government debt have fallen from their July 2022 peaks toward their prepandemic levels. Accordingly, more governments that earlier faced severe funding shortages are accessing international debt markets this year.

Elevated Debt Burdens

Debt-to-GDP ratios, which increased sharply during the pandemic, remain elevated, and large budget deficits continue to raise the debt burden in many economies. Interest payments on debt have also increased as a share of government revenues, crowding out necessary growth-enhancing budgetary investments. In low-income countries, interest payments are estimated to average 14.3 percent of general government revenues in 2024, about double the level 15 years ago. To rebuild budgetary room for maneuver and curb the rising path of debt, the fiscal policy stance is expected to tighten in 2024 and beyond, with higher taxes and lower government spending in several advanced and emerging market and developing economies. This shift is expected to weigh on near-term economic activity.

The Outlook: Steady Growth and Disinflation

Latest projections are for the global economy to continue growing at a similar pace as in 2023 during 2024–25 and for global headline and core inflation to decline steadily. There is little change in the forecast for global growth since the January 2024 WEO Update, with some adjustments for major economies (Tables 1.1 and 1.2), including a further strengthening in the projection for the United States, offset by modest downward revisions across several other economies. The forecast for global growth remains higher, however, than in the October 2023 WEO. The outlook for inflation is broadly similar to that in the October 2023 WEO, with a downward revision for advanced economies, offset by an upward revision for emerging market and developing economies. Medium-term prospects for growth in world output and trade remain the lowest in decades, with the pace of convergence toward higher living standards slowing for middle- and lower-income countries.

The baseline forecasts for the global economy are predicated on a number of projections for global commodity prices, interest rates, and fiscal policies (Figure 1.13):

- Commodity price projections: Prices of fuel commodities are projected to fall in 2024 by, on average, 9.7 percent, with oil prices falling by about 2.5 percent. Coal and natural gas prices are expected to continue declining from their earlier peaks, by 25.1 percent for coal and 32.6 percent for natural gas in 2024, with the gas market becoming increasingly balanced on account of new supply, dampened demand, and high storage levels. The forecast for nonfuel commodity prices is broadly stable in 2024, with prices for base metals expected to fall by 1.8 percent, on account of weaker industrial activity in Europe and China. Food commodity prices are predicted to decline by 2.2 percent in 2024. Compared with those in the January 2024 WEO Update, forecasts for food prices have been revised slightly downward, driven by expectations of abundant global supplies for wheat and maize.

- Monetary policy projections: With inflation projected to continue declining toward targets and longer-term inflation expectations remaining anchored, policy rates of central banks in major advanced economies are generally expected to start declining in the second half of 2024 (Figure 1.13).

- Fiscal policy projections: Governments in advanced economies are expected to tighten fiscal policy in 2024 (Figure 1.13) and, to a lesser extent, in 2025–26. Among major advanced economies, the structural fiscal-balance-to-GDP ratio is expected to rise by 1.9 percentage points in the United States and by 0.8 percentage point in the euro area in 2024. In emerging market and developing economies, the projected fiscal stance is expected to be, on average, broadly neutral in 2024, with a tightening of about 0.2 percentage point projected for 2025.

(Percent; solid = April 2024 WEO, dashes = October 2023 WEO)

Global growth, estimated at 3.2 percent in 2023, is projected to continue at the same pace in 2024 and 2025 (Table 1.1). The projection for 2024 is revised up by 0.1 percentage point from the January 2024 WEO Update, and by 0.3 percentage point with respect to the October 2023 WEO forecast (Figure 1.14). Nevertheless, the projection for global growth in 2024 and 2025 is below the historical (2000–19) annual average of 3.8 percent, reflecting restrictive monetary policies and withdrawal of fiscal support, as well as low underlying productivity growth. Advanced economies are expected to see growth rise slightly, with the increase mainly reflecting a recovery in the euro area from low growth in 2023, whereas emerging market and developing economies are expected to experience stable growth through 2024 and 2025, with regional differences.

Growth Forecast for Advanced Economies

For advanced economies, growth is projected to rise from 1.6 percent in 2023 to 1.7 percent in 2024 and 1.8 percent in 2025. The forecast is revised upward by 0.2 percentage point for 2024 compared with the January 2024 WEO Update projections and remains the same for 2025. The 2024 upgrade reflects a revision to US growth, while an upward revision to the US broadly offsets a similar downward revision to the euro area in 2025.

Growth Forecast for Emerging Market and Developing Economies

In emerging market and developing economies, growth is expected to be stable at 4.2 percent in 2024 and 2025, with a moderation in emerging and developing Asia offset mainly by rising growth for economies in the Middle East and Central Asia and for sub-Saharan Africa. Low-income developing countries are expected to experience gradually increasing growth, from 4.0 percent in 2023 to 4.7 percent in 2024 and 5.2 percent in 2025, as some constraints on near-term growth ease.

World Trade Outlook: Stable, in Line with Output

(Percent of GDP)

World trade growth is projected at 3.0 percent in 2024 and 3.3 percent in 2025, with revisions of a 0.3 percentage point decrease for 2024 and 2025 compared with January 2024 projections. Trade growth is expected to remain below its historical (2000–19) annual average growth rate of 4.9 percent over the medium term, at 3.2 percent in 2029. This projection implies, in the context of the relatively low outlook for economic growth, a ratio of total world trade to GDP (in current dollars) that averages 57 percent over the next five years, broadly in line with the evolution in trade since the global financial crisis (Figure 1.17). Even as world trade-to-GDP ratios remain relatively stable, significant shifts in trade patterns are taking place, with increasing fractures along geopolitical lines, especially since the start of the war in Ukraine in February 2022.

Meanwhile, global current account balances—the sums of absolute surpluses and deficits—are expected to continue narrowing in 2024, as in 2023, following their significant increase in 2022 (Figure 1.18). The rise in current account balances in 2022 reflected contributions from elevated commodity prices, triggered by Russia’s invasion of Ukraine, the uneven recovery from the pandemic, and the rapid tightening of US monetary policy. Over the medium term, global balances are expected to narrow gradually as the contribution of these factors wanes. Creditor and debtor stock positions are estimated to have increased in 2023, with valuation losses in debtor economies and gains in creditor economies more than offsetting narrowing current account balances. These positions are expected to stabilize over the medium term. In some economies, gross external liabilities remain large from a historical perspective and pose risks of external stress.

(Percent; five-year-ahead projections)

The latest forecast for global growth in 2029 is 3.1 percent. This medium-term forecast—unchanged since the October 2023 WEO—is at its lowest in decades (Figure 1.19). It is lower than the medium-term projection of 3.6 percent made just before the onset of the pandemic (at the time of the January 2020 WEO Update), the 4.9 percent medium-term projection made just before the onset of the global financial crisis (at the time of the April 2008 WEO), and the historical (2000–19) annual average 3.8 percent for actual global growth. The gradual erosion in global growth prospects reflects factors beyond a more slowly rising global population.

The bulk of the decline reflects a fall in prospective growth in GDP per person, which is down from a medium-term forecast of 3.9 percent made before the global financial crisis to 2.1 percent in the latest projections (Figure 1.19, panel 2).

Risks to the Outlook: Broadly Balanced

Risks to the global economic landscape have diminished since October 2023, leading to a broadly balanced distribution of possible outcomes around the baseline projection for global growth, from a clear downside tilt in the April 2023 WEO and the October 2023 WEO. With inflationary pressures abating more swiftly than expected in many countries, risks to the inflation outlook are now also broadly balanced. Overall, there is scope for further favorable surprises, but numerous adverse risks pull the distribution of outcomes in the opposite direction.

INDIAN ECONOMY

FY25 Started with a Strong Performance of Domestic Activity in April

- Domestic economic activity remained buoyant in FY24, and the momentum has continued in FY25. GST collection jumped to a high of ₹ 2.1 lakh crore in April 2024. The strong uptick was driven by an increase in domestic transactions and imports. The average GST collections have also displayed a level shift upwards over the years due to heightened economic activity and a widening tax base. Among lead demand indicators, toll collection registered continued growth in April 2024. Electricity consumption also accelerated in April due to rising temperatures and increased industrial activity. Vehicle registrations surged in April 2024, led by two-wheelers on the back of stable fuel prices and a positive outlook for monsoon. However, on account of seasonality, e-way bill generation softened compared to March 2024, but registered strong growth compared to the corresponding month last year.

Resilient Investment Indicators

- Investment activity continues to display stability despite ongoing geopolitical headwinds. As per the Second Advance Estimates of National Income released by the National Statistical Office (NSO), the Gross Fixed Capital Formation (GFCF) is expected to be the largest GDP growth driver in FY24, with a percentage contribution of 44.9 per cent. The National Account Statistics 2024 shows GFCF growing by 18.7 per cent in FY23 from ₹69.8 lakh crore in FY22 to ₹82.9 lakh crore in FY23, with broad-based growth across sectors. GFCF in private non-financial corporations witnessed a most notable CAGR of 10.6 per cent from FY12 to FY23, highlighting a pick-up in private capital expenditure.
- According to the data released by the Controller General of Accounts, capital expenditure by the Union Government from April 2023 to February 2024 stood at ₹8.1 lakh crore, 36.5 per cent higher compared to the corresponding period of the previous year. Increased capital expenditure by the Union Government has led to an improvement in the quality of Government spending, as reflected in the decline in the revenue expenditure to capital outlay ratio. The ratio declined from 7.1 in FY20 (April-February) to 3.7 in FY24 (April-February). The increased spending on capex has also incentivised States to increase their capital spending. Capital expenditure by 22 major States grew by 26.6 per cent during April 23-February 24, versus 13.3 per cent in the corresponding period of the previous year.

Increased Government investment activity has also resulted in the crowding-in of private investment. Capital Goods and Construction/Infrastructure Goods indices of the Index of Industrial Production (IIP) were 6.2 per cent and 9.6 per cent higher during FY24 compared to the previous year. Though imports of capital goods in FY24 were marginally lower than that in the previous year, their share in overall imports increased from 11.8 per cent in FY23 to 12.4 per cent in FY24, indicating a continued build-up of productive capacity in the economy.

4. The CMIE data on new investment announcements serves as an indicator for corporate capex plans. These figures represent intentions, which may or may not materialise, but they do mirror the sentiments and expectations of the companies. The overall scenario is promising, with a significant improvement compared to the pre-COVID era, despite the intentions being lower than the previous year. In FY24, the private sector announced new investment projects worth ₹23.5 lakh crore, much higher than the past five years' average of ₹14.4 lakh crore. Despite new investment projects announced by the private sector being lower in FY24 compared to the previous year, the investment projects completed by the private sector witnessed a significant uptick to ₹3.1 lakh crore in FY24 from ₹2.7 lakh crore in FY23.

5. The upbeat investment environment is accompanied by increased capacity utilisation in the manufacturing sector, as seen in the RBI's quarterly Order Books, Inventory and Capacity Utilisation Survey (OBICUS) for Q3 of FY24. The aggregate capacity utilisation in the manufacturing sector picked up significantly from 74 per cent in Q2 to 74.7 per cent in Q3 of FY24. Manufacturing companies received a larger number of orders during this quarter as compared to the corresponding quarter of the previous year.

Stronger Rural and Urban Demand Conditions

- While investment activity remains expansive, consumption is being propelled by consistent growth in urban demand and a resurgence in rural demand, thereby contributing to India's growth in FY24. As per the data published by Nielsen IQ, the volume sales of fast-moving consumer goods (FMCG) in rural markets saw a rise of 7.6 per cent in the Q4 of FY24 on a yoy basis. For the first time in five quarters, rural FMCG demand growth outpaced urban growth.
- Other indicators of rural demand also demonstrate a robust growth in consumption activity in FY24. Two and three-wheeler sales increased by 14.2 per cent in FY24, at 186.7 lakh compared to 163.5 lakh in FY23, due to enhanced model availability, new product introduction and positive market sentiments. Carrying the momentum in FY25, two-wheeler sales registered a remarkable growth of 30.8 per cent in April 2024 on a yearly basis.
- The resilience of urban demand is evident in the robust growth of housing personal loans, which increased by 36.9 per cent in FY24. Sales of passenger vehicles saw a rise of 8.4 per cent in FY24, spurred by the launch of cost-effective compressed natural gas fuel options and new electric models, coupled with positive market sentiment and the provision of high-quality after-sales service.
- The robust consumption demand in urban areas is also reflected in rising domestic air passenger traffic. In FY24, domestic air passenger traffic surpassed the pre-pandemic peak, driven by a growing demand for air travel. The momentum in urban demand persisted in FY25, buoyed by positive consumer sentiment and festive celebrations.

10. According to the RBI's consumer confidence survey for April 2024, the Current Situation Index (CSI) rose by 3.4 points to 98.5 in March 2024, the highest level since mid-2019. Consumers are quite optimistic about the general economic situation, income and spending. Consumer confidence for the year ahead improved further on the back of optimism in almost all parameters, such as economic situation, employment, income and spending. The Future Expectations Index (FEI) also rose further by 2.1 points to 125.2, also its highest level since mid-2019.

Robust Growth in Industrial Activity in FY24

- Industrial output continues to expand in March 2024, with the Index of Industrial Production (IIP) increasing by 4.9 per cent in March 2024. IIP grew by 5.8 per cent in the fiscal year FY24. It is important to note that IIP is a volume index, and its growth cannot be readily compared with that of value indices (either at current prices or at constant prices)
- The acceleration in 2023-24 was bolstered by healthy growth in infrastructure, intermediate and consumer goods sectors. The emphasis on capex push by the government has led to robust performance of the infrastructure goods sector, exhibiting a growth of 9.7 per cent in FY24, higher than 8.4 per cent in FY23.

- Manufacturing sector output expanded to a five-month high of 5.2 per cent in March 2024, lifting the overall growth performance for this segment in the 2023-24 to 5.5 per cent. Basic metals, motor vehicles, trailers and semi-trailers and coke and refined petroleum products were the major catalysts to overall growth.
- The manufacturing activity maintained its growth trajectory from the previous year, with the Manufacturing PMI for April remaining in the expansionary zone, supported by strong demand conditions, which resulted in a further expansion of output. Improvements in delivery times from suppliers contributed to the increased purchasing activity. Furthermore, a positive outlook for the year ahead prompted firms to expand their workforce.

15. Business sentiments remain upbeat as per the RBI's 105th round of the Industrial Outlook Survey (IOS). Manufacturers continue to be optimistic about demand conditions in Q1 of FY25, with well over half of the respondents reporting a rise in production, order books and overall business situation. With the manufacturing sector capacity utilisation is rising above the long-term average, the increase in new investment announcements by the private sector remains positive for growth.

Healthy Expansion of the Service Sector

16. Just like the industrial activity, the growth in service sectors remains robust in April 2024, as gauged by HSBC's Services PMI. The business activity index has stayed in the expansionary zone for 33 consecutive months in a row, maintaining a resilient value of 60.8 in April 2024. The surge was sustained by buoyant domestic demand and growth of new business and output. In addition to the robust domestic demand, companies reported growth in emerging international markets. The year-ahead outlook for business activity has improved, fuelled by enhanced marketing initiatives, gains in efficiency, competitive pricing strategies, and optimistic predictions regarding sustained favourable demand conditions.

17. The hospitality industry demonstrated robust growth in FY24, driven by a rise in domestic leisure travel and an increased demand for meetings, incentives, conferences, and exhibitions, as well as weddings and business travel. There was an improvement in the hotel occupancy rate, which increased from 68-70 per cent in FY23 to 70-72 per cent in FY24.

Performance of Real estate

18. Real estate sector has seen a significant rebound after the Covid pandemic led lockdowns. The residential property market in India demonstrated a promising trend in 2023, with both demand and new supply experiencing double-digit growth. The momentum continued in Q1 of 2024, witnessing record-breaking sales, clocking a robust 41 per cent yoy growth compared to the same period in the previous year. Further, as mentioned in paragraph 8, the increasing demand for real estate is reiterated by the rise in housing loans.

19. Pandemic-induced trends such as remote and hybrid working are expected to have induced homebuyers to venture into larger, sustainable spaces with value-added services and amenities. Factors such as rapid urbanisation, growing emergence of nuclear families, new real estate developers entering the sector, and improved availability of financial options for developers, as well as homebuyers, have contributed to the growth of the real estate sector.

Lowest Rate of Retail Inflation in Last 11 Months

20. Retail inflation based on consumer price index (CPI) decreased from 4.85 per cent in March 2024 to 4.83 per cent in April 2024, marking it as the lowest rate in the past 11 months. The modest reduction in retail inflation in April 2024 was primarily due to a drop in core inflation (which excludes food, fuel and light), which reached a record low of 3.2 per cent, the lowest since January 2014. The decline in core inflation in April was largely due to reduced inflation rates in various items including clothing, footwear, housing, household goods and services, health, education, recreation, amusement, transport and communication.

21. For the eighth month in a row, prices in the fuel and light group remained in the deflationary zone. On March 9, 2024, the government reduced the price of non-subsidised LPG by Rs.100 per 14.2 kg cylinder. This price cut had a ripple effect in April too.
22. Price dynamics in essential food commodities over the past two months reveal that the moderation in prices has been broad-based in March and April 2024 except for seasonal uptick in some vegetables and persistent pressure in certain pulses. Among cereals, wheat price is expected to cool down by the current wheat procurement. Edible oils prices continued to remain in a deflationary zone. Most of the remaining essential commodities witnessed the softening of price pressures assisted by the slew of administrative measures taken by the government. The inflation trend for milk continued its decline over the past year. Sugar inflation saw a notable drop compared to the trends observed in the previous four months.
23. Further, the sowing of summer crops is progressing favourably. As of 10 May 2024, the area sown under the summer crops expanded by 8.9 per cent compared to the corresponding period last year. Crops like rice, Shree anna coarse cereals, pulses and oilseeds contributed to the increased acreage. This would translate into augmented production.
24. Going forward, the inflation trajectory will be influenced by several factors. Government initiatives, including the open market sales, monitoring of stocks, import of pulses, and export restrictions, are expected to help stabilize food prices. The forecast of normal rainfall for the Southwest Monsoon 2024 bodes well for food production and could alleviate price pressure on food items. Ongoing geopolitical tensions could potentially drive-up international commodity prices and disrupt supply chains.

Optimistic Outlook for Merchandise Exports as External Sector Remains Stable

25. India's merchandise exports in FY25 began on a positive note, recording a growth of 1.08 per cent yoy in April 2024. This comes amid marginally improved economic activity and consumer sentiment in Europe and a steady US economy. The main drivers of export growth were electronic goods, organic and inorganic chemicals, petroleum products and pharmaceuticals, which increased by 25.8 per cent, 16.8 per cent, 3.1 per cent and 7.4 per cent, respectively. Imports increased by 10.3 per cent yoy. This led to an increase in the merchandise trade deficit by 32.3 per cent yoy in April 2024.

26. RBI monthly data indicates India’s services exports ended in FY24 by recording a growth of 4.8 per cent. Although the growth has moderated compared to the previous year, a decline in services imports led to a 13.6 per cent increase in net services trade. Preliminary estimates by the Ministry of Commerce and Industry indicate that the momentum in services exports has been carried forward into FY25 with a growth of 14.7 per cent in April 2024.

27. Gross Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) inflows in FY24 stood at USD 71.0 billion, compared to USD 71.4 billion in FY23. The 2024 Kearny FDI Confidence Index ranked India 4th in the EME category, underscoring its attractiveness as an FDI destination despite moderation and volatility in global capital flows.

28. After ending FY24 on a strong note, India witnessed a net outflow of foreign portfolio investments of USD 1.8 billion in April 2024. This is attributed to profit-booking by market participants amidst higher market valuations and uncertainty in global markets regarding interest rate cuts by major central banks.

29. Despite volatile FPI flows, the rupee continues to remain one of the most stable major currencies. Between 2nd January 2024 and 15th May 2024, the rupee depreciated by 0.2 per cent against the US Dollar. Between 1st April 2024 and 15th May 2024, the rupee depreciated marginally by 0.11 per cent. A stable rupee has also aided the RBI build significant forex reserves, which, as of 10 May 2024, stood at USD 644.2 billion.

Conclusion

The crux of the foregoing discussion is that the industrial and service sectors of the Indian economy are performing well, backed by brisk domestic demand and partially by tentative external demand. Domestic manufacturing will likely receive stronger external support in the upcoming months. Modestly improved economic activity and consumer sentiment in Europe and a steady US economy have aided India’s exports in April. There are reports that show that the number of organisations in the US and Europe that are focusing on reindustrialisation has increased. The majority of these organisations are focussing on enhancing supply chain resilience. This can benefit India's manufacturing firms as part of the China Plus One strategy. The EXIM Bank of India has forecasted that merchandise exports will post a double-digit growth in Q1 of FY25.

Factors like the ongoing recovery in the hotel and tourism industry, increased credit flow to transport and real estate segments, policy support and robust investments in physical and digital infrastructure and logistics will help the services sector. The strong export growth in April 2024 indicates that the momentum in services trade has been carried forward into FY25.

The future inflation path will be shaped by several elements. Government initiatives to stabilise the prices of essential food items, including their open market sale, stock monitoring and trade policy measures are helping to stabilize food prices. The harvest for the Rabi Marketing Season for 2024-25 is expected to temper the prices of key items like wheat and chana. The prediction of a normal Southwest Monsoon also augers well for food production and easing of price pressures. With the assumption of normal monsoon, the RBI forecasts a 4.9 per cent retail inflation for FY25’s first quarter. The positive indications in the farm sector should help India firewall against any adverse pressures that may arise from geopolitical tensions and global commodity prices. Likewise, the strong macro-economic buffers of India should help the real sectors of the economy navigate the external headwinds smoothly and continue the growth momentum of the previous year.

GLOBAL POLYESTER FIBER INDUSTRY

Polyester Staple Fiber Market

- The global industry was valued at US$ 31.8 Bn in 2023
- It is expected to grow at a CAGR of 4.7% from 2024 to 2034 and reach US$ 52.4 Bn by the end of 2034

Analyst Viewpoint

Expansion in home furnishings sector is fueling the polyester staple fiber market value. Polyester staple fiber finds applications in bedding, curtains, carpets, dresses, pants, shirts, and activewear due to its durability, ease of care, and resistance against wrinkles.

Increase in production of textiles is augmenting the polyester staple fiber market demand. Polyester fiber is the most widely used chemical fiber in the textile sector.

Players operating in the polyester staple fiber industry landscape are investing in recycling to help reduce plastic pollution. They are also launching advanced production processes that offer savings in energy, water, and raw material consumption.

Market Introduction

Polyester Staple Fiber (PSF) is a synthetic man-made fiber that is created through the polymerization of polyester materials such as Mono Ethylene Glycol (MEG) and Purified Terephthalic Acid (PTA) under high pressure and temperature. The polymer, post-spinning and drawing, forms staple fiber and is cut into specific lengths.

The man-made fiber sector is flourishing on account of properties such as low absorbency, higher resistance against abrasion, wrinkles, and heat, and quick drying after washing of polyester staple fiber. The end-use applications include automotive, interior decoration, and textiles.

One of the latest polyester staple fiber market trends is the use of blends of polyester and cotton with the addition of a minuscule percentage of elastane to achieve the stretch desired in garments. However, limited breathability of polyester staple fiber does not render it an ideal choice for undergarments or summer clothing.

Polyester clothing, if worn during physical activities, may result in individuals feeling sweaty and overheated as it acts as a barrier in the body's natural cooling mechanisms (evaporation, in particular).

Expansion in Home Furnishings Sector Fueling Polyester Staple Fiber Market Size

Advantages of polyester staple fiber include resilience, low shrinkage, cost-effectiveness, and being hypoallergenic. They render it ideal for modern homes in stuffing, bedding, wadding, and many other applications pertaining to home furnishings.

Polyester staple fabric undergoes pre-shrinking during drawing as well as crimping manufacturing processes, which makes it resistant to further shrinkage. The number of draws is inversely proportional to shrinkage in the final fabrics. A higher number of crimps ascertains good bulkiness and elasticity.

Innovations in polyester staple fiber technology facilitate trilobed, oval, triangular, and multilobed shapes apart from the conventional round cross-section. One can choose from these cross-sections to have the desired hand feel and luster. Thus, growth in home furnishings sector is driving the polyester staple fiber market development.

Increase in Production of Textiles Boosting Market Progress

Polyester staple fiber is used to manufacture apparel inclusive of intimate wear, activewear, sportswear, sewing threads, suits, gloves, lingerie, socks, and shirts.

Polyester staple fiber, in spinning production, can be individually manufactured for 100% polyester spun yarn or used in combination with viscose, cotton, or wool for blended yarn such as CVC 70/30 in which 30% comprises polyester staple fiber and 70% cotton.

Polyester staple fiber is looked upon as the major alternative to cotton fiber for the textile sector due to its superiority in terms of thinness, water absorption, abrasion resistance, cost, and multiple colors and designs.

Polyester staple fiber blends with low melt fiber form thermally-bonded sheets for insulation. The insulation property makes it suitable for comforters, quilts, and mattresses.

According to the India Brand Equity Foundation (IBEF), the Indian composites market is expected to reach an estimated value of US$ 1.9 billion by 2026 with a CAGR of 16.3% from 2021 to 2026 and the Indian consumption of composite materials will touch 7,68,200 tons in 2027. Hence, rise in production of textiles is contributing to the polyester staple fiber market growth.

Regional Outlook

As per the latest polyester staple fiber market analysis, Asia Pacific held the largest share in 2023. The region is expected to continue with its dominance even during the forecast period. Increase in production of textiles is fueling the polyester staple fiber industry share in Asia Pacific.

China, South Korea, and India are major markets for textile fibers in Asia Pacific. In 2022-23, the production of fiber in India stood at 2.15 million tons, according to the IBEF.

Overall Polyester Filament Yarn (PFY) demand was projected to witness 15-20% growth in fiscal 2022, according to Invest India. Moreover, overall Polyester Staple Fiber (PSF) demand is projected to witness a growth of 14-19%.

With its remarkable properties and versatility, PSF has become an indispensable material for various automotive applications. As the industry evolves and explores new possibilities, the demand for PSF is projected to continue its upward trajectory, contributing to the thriving future of India's PSF market.

Growing Demand of Polyester Staple Fibre in Construction Industry

Polyester Staple Fibre (PSF), a synthetic fibre primarily derived from PET or PTA and MEG, has become increasingly popular in the construction industry due to its remarkable properties. With its high tensile strength, resilience, and cost-effectiveness, PSF is an ideal choice for a wide range of applications including insulation, geotextiles, roofing materials, and concrete reinforcement. Its versatility and durability make it a go-to material for construction projects of all sizes and types

The surge in demand for PSF in the construction industry can be attributed to the growing emphasis on sustainability. As the industry strives to adopt more environmentally friendly practices, PSF emerges as a viable option. Not only is it recyclable, but it also helps to reduce the carbon footprint, making it a preferred choice in line with the global shift towards sustainable construction practices. By incorporating PSF into their projects, builders and developers can contribute to a more eco-friendly and greener future.

In summary, the increasing demand for Polyester Staple Fibre in the construction industry is a major driving force behind the growth of India's PSF market. As the construction industry continues to evolve and adopt more sustainable practices, the demand for eco-friendly and cost-effective materials like PSF will only continue to rise. This provides a promising outlook for India's PSF market, as it aligns with the global trend of prioritizing sustainable construction materials and practices.

Key Market Challenges

Volatility in Price of Raw Materials

Polyester Staple Fibre (PSF) is a versatile material derived primarily from raw materials such as Purified Terephthalic Acid (PTA) and Monoethylene Glycol (MEG). The prices of these commodities have experienced significant fluctuations, introducing a level of instability in the PSF market.

The market's uncertainties are further compounded by the volatility of upstream MEG, which is anticipated to contribute to increased price fluctuations in the upcoming quarters. This unpredictability not only affects production costs but also poses challenges for manufacturers in accurately forecasting their operational expenses. Consequently, such unpredictability can potentially impede the market's growth in the years to come. Additionally, the PSF market faces additional challenges in the form of alternative fibres like nylon. Unlike PSF, these alternative fibres are less affected by price volatility. This disparity in price stability could potentially lead to a shift in consumer preference, thereby impacting the market for PSF.

To summarize, while the Indian Polyester Staple Fibre market exhibits significant potential, the volatility in raw material prices remains a prominent challenge. In order to ensure sustainability and foster growth, it is crucial for stakeholders within the industry to devise effective strategies that mitigate the adverse impact of this volatility and navigate through these uncertain market conditions. By doing so, they can position themselves for success and capitalize on the market's opportunities.

Key Market Trends

Increasing Use of Polyester Staple Fibre in Non-Woven Applications

Polyester Staple Fibre (PSF), derived from raw materials like Purified Terephthalic Acid (PTA) and Monoethylene Glycol (MEG), has been gaining immense popularity in the non-woven industry. This is primarily due to its outstanding mechanical properties and high resistance to chemicals, making it a preferred choice among manufacturers. Non-woven fabrics, which are made from PSF, are increasingly being utilized across various industries including hygiene, healthcare, automotive, and construction.

The advantages offered by non-woven fabrics are numerous. They are known for their exceptional durability, versatility, and cost-effectiveness, making them an ideal solution for these sectors. Moreover, the rising demand for disposable products and the growing awareness of hygiene have further propelled the growth of non-woven applications, consequently increasing the demand for polyester fibers.

The widespread application of polyester staple fibre in the garments and textile industry, particularly in the production of spun yarn, continues to drive the overall market growth. However, the emergence of non-woven applications has opened up new avenues for the sector to diversify and expand its reach.

In conclusion, the increasing adoption of Polyester Staple Fibre in non-woven applications is a significant trend observed in India's PSF market. As non-woven applications continue to gain popularity and become more prevalent, this trend is expected to persist, further accelerating the growth of the PSF market in India.

JOURNEY

OUR BUSINESS VERTICLE

We conduct business in B2B segment, and we are operating in two business verticals:

- 1) Recycled Fiber: We manufacture synthetic fiber called as Recycled Polyester Staple Fiber (R-PSF) from PET bottles (Polyethylene Terephthalate bottles) of coke, soda, water or other post-consumer PET bottles or post-industrial waste. The PET bottles are the most commonly used plastic in packaging, carrying, storing. The process of creating recycled PET fiber involves collecting PET plastic bottles, sorting and cleaning them, then melting it down to form pellets or chips. These pellets are then extruded into thin filaments, which can be spun into yarns or fibers. These fibers can be further processed and woven into fabrics or used as filling material in various products like pillows, mattresses, and insulation.

OUR MANUFACTURING PROCESS FOR RECYCLED POLYESTER STAPLE FIBER

Collection of PET Bottles: The very first step in making Recycled Polyester Staple Fiber (R-PSF) is to collect all the waste PET bottles. These PET bottles are the raw material which is used in making solid or hollow fiber or recycled pellets or resins. We source them from junk collectors, waste collectors or waste management enterprise.

Segregation of PET Bottles: Once these bottles reach at manufacturing facility, they are sorted either manually or by automated machinery based on colour and polymer and all the dispensable part like label, bottle cap and other non-recyclable items are removed.

Cleaning of PET Bottles: following the previous step, these are decontaminated and washed using caustic and detergent water to remove all the dirt, dust, bacteria or residual liquids. They are washed multiple times in different ways like pre-washing, hot washing, friction washing and rinsed and dried using air blowers or dryers to remove any moisture which is essential so as to maintain the quality of the plastic.

Shredding of PET bottles: Thereafter, these are put into high intensity grinder or shredder which convert these bottles into small pieces called as flakes. These flakes are again washed and dried. These flakes are of different sizes and measurements as per the requirement.

Melting of Flakes: These clean and dried flakes are first melted at very high temperature to form melted polymer or vicious liquid keeping in mind they don't get overheated or degraded. The flakes are melted at very specific temperatures.

Extrusion: The shredded plastic flakes are melted and extruded to form molten plastic. This is typically done in an extruder, where the plastic flakes are heated at specific temperature as per the requirement to form continuous strands or pellets.

Spinning and Drawing: This vicious liquid* is passed through series of spinnerets or small holes of spinnerets at controlled rate and pressure to produce filaments. The size and shape of the spinneret holes determine the diameter and cross-sectional shape of the filaments. Once these filaments exit the spinnerets, they are cooled down using air or water to solidify them into solid strands. Then these strands are collected and fed into drawing line where the strands are stretched, crimped and dried.

A vicious liquid is thick and sticky, which does not flow easily.*

Cutting: Finally, these thread or yarn are cut into the desired staple length, making recycled staple fiber ready for further processing or textile production.

Bailing: The threads are chopped into the appropriate staple length as soon as they emerge from the spinnerets, readying the recycled staple fiber. After that, a device known as a baler is used to compress these staple fibers. The fiber is compressed by the machine so that big, rectangular blocks known as bales are created. After that, in order to keep the bales compact and transport them to our clients, they are packed and secured with wire and straps.

Recycled fibres for manufacturing pellets. These pellets are used to manufacture bottles or new plastic products such as storing and packaging bottles.

Cooling and Pelletizing: After passing through extrusion, the recycled plastic are cooled using water or air to solidify them into pellets or resin granules giving them consistent shape and size. cooling is essential to solidify the molten plastic into solid pellets and prevent them from sticking together.

There are various methods to cool down recycled pellets:

- a) Water Bath Cooling: In this method, recycled pellets are fed into a water bath that is filled with cold water following the extrusion process. The pellets quickly release heat into the cooler liquid as they come into touch with it as they sink into the water. Usually, an auger system or conveyor belt is used to remove the pellets from the water bath once they have cooled.
- b) Ambient Cooling: Recycled pellets can be allowed to spontaneously cool in a controlled atmosphere at room temperature. When quick cooling is not essential, this approach works well for smaller-scale applications. The heated pellets may be spread out on trays or racks and allowed to cool progressively as part of ambient cooling. It might take longer to process data, though, and it might not be as effective as other cooling techniques.

- c) Air Cooling: Here, the hot recycled pellets are transported through a tunnel or cooling chamber and exposed to the outside air during the air-cooling process. Blowers or fans are used to circulate cold air around the pellets, facilitating cooling and heat transfer. Carefully regulated airflow pressure and temperature allows efficient cooling without changing pellets. Air cooling systems can be added with features such as moving vents, deflectors or air curtains to maximize airflow and prevent overheating.
- d) Conveyor Cooling: Hot recycled pellets are moved via a vibrating conveyor or conveyor belt in conveyor cooling systems, where they are exposed to cool air or water spray. As the pellets pass through the cooling zone, they continue to move constantly along the conveyor, enabling uniform cooling. Conveyor cooling systems with programmable conveyor speed and temperature settings can be tailored to accommodate different production volumes and pellet sizes.

The estimates and assumptions used in the Financial Statements are based upon Management's best evaluation of the relevant facts and circumstances as of the date of the Financial Statements. Examples of such estimates include useful life of fixed assets, creation of deferred tax asset, lease rentals and write off of deferred revenue expenditure. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

1.04 Inventories

The cost of an intangible asset comprises its purchase price, including any import duties and other taxes (other than those subsequently recoverable from the taxing authorities), and any directly attributable expenditure on making the asset ready for its intended use and net of any trade discounts and rebates. Subsequent expenditure on an intangible asset after its purchase / completion is recognised as an expense when incurred unless it is probable that such expenditure will enable the asset to generate future economic benefits in excess of its originally assessed standards of performance and such expenditure can be measured and attributed to the asset reliably, in which case such expenditure is added to the cost of the asset.

1.12 Foreign currency transactions and translations

Initial recognition

Transactions in foreign currencies entered into by the Company and its integral foreign operations are accounted at the exchange rates prevailing on the date of the transaction or at rates that closely approximate the rate at the date of the transaction.

Investment properties are capitalised and depreciated (where applicable) in accordance with the policy stated for Tangible Fixed Assets. 1.15 Employee benefits

The Company has adopted the Accounting Standard 15- Employee Benefits prescribed under the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006. Employee benefits include provident fund, bonus, superannuation fund, compensated absences, long service awards and post-employment medical benefits. The Company's obligation towards various employee benefits has been recognized as follows:

Short Term Employee Benefits

All employee benefits payable wholly within twelve months of rendering the service are short-term employee benefits. Benefits such as salaries, wages and bonus wages, etc, are recognized in the Profit and Loss statement in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

Defined contribution plans

The Company's contribution to provident fund are considered as defined contribution plans and are charged as an expense as they fall due based on the amount of contribution required to be made.

1.16 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs include interest, amortisation of ancillary costs incurred and exchange differences arising from foreign currency borrowings to the extent they are regarded as an adjustment to the interest cost. Costs in connection with the borrowing of funds to the extent not directly related to the acquisition of qualifying assets are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss over the tenure of the loan. Borrowing costs, allocated to and utilised for qualifying assets, pertaining to the period from commencement of activities relating to construction / development of the qualifying asset upto the date of capitalisation of such asset is added to the cost of the assets. Borrowing cost attributable to the fixed assets during construction/ exploration, renovation and modernization are capitalized. Such borrowing costs are apportioned on the average balance of capital work in progress for the year. Other borrowing costs are recognized as an expense in the period in which they are incurred.

1.17 Segment reporting

The Company identifies primary segments based on the dominant source, nature of risks and returns and the internal organisation and management structure. The operating segments are the segments for which separate financial information is available and for which operating profit/loss amounts are evaluated regularly by the executive Management in deciding how to allocate resources and in assessing performance. However the company is currently dealing in only one primary segment.

1.18 Taxes on income

Tax expense comprises current and deferred tax. Current income tax is measured at the amount expected to be paid to the tax authorities in accordance with Income Tax Act, 1961. Deferred income tax reflects the impact of current year timing differences between taxable income that originates in one period and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws, which gives future economic benefits in the form of adjustment to future income tax liability, is considered as an asset if there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax. Accordingly, MAT is recognised as an asset in the Balance Sheet when it is probable that future economic benefit associated with it will flow to the Company.

Deferred tax is recognised on timing differences, being the differences between the taxable income and the accounting income that originate in one period and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods. Deferred tax is measured using the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantially enacted as at the reporting date. Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all timing differences. Deferred tax assets in respect of unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward of losses are recognised only if there is virtual certainty that there will be sufficient future taxable income available to realise such assets. Deferred tax assets are recognised for timing differences of other items only to the extent that reasonable certainty exists that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which these can be realised. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if such items relate to taxes on income levied by the same governing tax laws and the Company has a legally enforceable right for such set off. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date for their realisability.

1.19 Impairment of assets

The carrying values of assets / cash generating units are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date for impairment. If any indication of impairment exists, the recoverable amount of such assets is estimated and impairment is recognised if the carrying amount of these assets exceeds their recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the greater of the net selling price and their value in use. Value in use is arrived at by discounting the future cash flows to their present value based on an appropriate discount factor. When there is indication that an impairment loss recognised for an asset in earlier accounting periods no longer exists or may have decreased, such reversal of impairment loss is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

1.20 Provisions and contingencies

A provision is recognised when the Company has a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions (excluding retirement benefits) are not discounted to their present value and are determined based on the best estimate required to settle the obligation at the Balance Sheet date. These are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates.

A contingent liability is disclosed where, as a result of past events, there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, require an outflow of resources. When there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

1.21 Insurance claims

Insurance claims are accounted for on the basis of claims admitted / expected to be admitted and to the extent that there is no uncertainty in receiving the claims.

1.22 Leases

a) Finance lease

- i) Assets taken on finance lease are capitalised at fair value or net present value of the minimum lease payments, whichever is less.
- ii) Lease payments are apportioned between the finance charges and outstanding liability in respect of assets taken on lease.

b) Operating lease

- i) Leases, where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased term are classified as operating lease. Lease rent are recognized as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss on a straight line basis over the lease term.

1.23 Earning per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year. Partly paid equity shares are treated as a fraction of an equity share to the extent that they were entitled to participate in dividends relative to a fully paid equity share during the reporting year. For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

1.24 Discontinuing Operations

A discontinuing operation is a component of an enterprise: (a) that the enterprise, pursuant to a single plan, is: (i) disposing of substantially in its entirety, such as by selling the component in a single transaction or by demerger or spin-off of ownership of the component to the enterprise's shareholders; or (ii) disposing of piecemeal, such as by selling off the component's assets and settling its liabilities individually; or (iii) terminating through abandonment; and (b) that represents a separate major line of business or geographical area of operations; and (c) that can be distinguished operationally and for financial reporting purposes. However, the company doesn't have any discontinued operation.

1.25 Contingencies and Events Occurring After Balance Sheet Date

1.26 Construction Contracts

1.27 Accounting for Amalgamations

1.28 Consolidated Financial Statements

1.29 Interim Financial Reporting

1.30 Financial Reporting of Interests in Joint Venture

1.31 Financial Instruments

a) Initial recognition

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the company becomes a party to the contractual provision of the instruments.

b) Classification and initial measurement of financial assets-

On initial recognition, a financial asset is classified as measured at

- Amortised cost
- FVOCI – debt instruments
- FVOCI – equity instruments
- FVTPL

Amortised cost - The Company's business model is not assessed on an instrument-by-instrument basis, but at a higher level of aggregated portfolios being the level at which they are managed. The financial asset is held with the objective to hold financial asset in order to collect contractual cash flows as per the contractual terms that give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payment of principal and interest (SPPI) on the principal amount outstanding. Accordingly, the company measures bank balances, loans, trade receivables and other financial instruments at amortised cost.

FVOCI – debt instruments - The company measures its debt instruments at FVOCI when the instrument is held within a business model, the objective of which is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets; and the contractual terms of the financial asset meet the SPPI test.

FVOCI – equity instruments - The company subsequently measures all equity investments at FVOCI when the instrument at fair value through profit or loss, unless the company's management has elected to classify irrevocably some of its equity instruments at FVOCI, when such instruments meet the definition of Equity under AS 32 Financial Instruments and are not held for trading.

Financial assets are not reclassified subsequent to their initial recognition, except if and in the period the Company changes its business model for managing financial assets.

All financial assets not classified as measured at amortised cost or FVOCI are measured at FVTPL. This includes all derivative financial assets.

c) Subsequent measurement of financial assets

Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured at amortised cost using effective interest method. The amortised cost is reduced by impairment losses. Interest income, foreign exchange gains and losses and impairment are recognised in Statement of profit and loss. Any gain and loss on derecognition is recognised in Statement of profit and loss.

Debt investment at FVOCI are subsequently measured at fair value. Interest income under effective interest method, foreign exchange gains and losses and impairment are recognised in Statement of profit and loss. Other net gains and losses are recognised in OCI. On derecognition, gains and losses accumulated in OCI are reclassified to Statement of profit and loss.

For equity investments, the Company makes an election on an instrument-by-instrument basis to designate equity investments as measured at FVOCI. These elected investments are measured at fair value with gains and losses arising from changes in fair value recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the reserves. The cumulative gain or loss is not reclassified to Statement of profit and loss on disposal of the investments. These investments in equity are not held for trading. Instead, they are held for strategic purpose. Dividend income received on such equity investments are recognised in Statement of profit and loss.

Equity investments that are not designated as measured at FVOCI are designated as measured at FVTPL and subsequent changes in fair value are recognised in Statement of profit and loss.

Financial assets at FVTPL are subsequently measured at fair value. Net gains and losses, including any interest or dividend income, are recognised in Statement of profit and loss.

d) Financial liabilities and equity instruments:

Debt and equity instruments issued by the Company are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities.

Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are classified as measured at amortised cost or FVTPL. A financial liability is classified as FVTPL if it is classified as held-for-trading or it is a derivative (that does not meet hedge accounting requirements) or it is designated as such on initial recognition. Other financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Interest expense and foreign exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is also recognised in profit or loss.

e) Derecognition of financial assets

The Company derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire, or it transfers the rights to receive the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another party. If the Company neither transfers nor retains substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership and continues to control the transferred asset, the Company recognises its retained interest in the asset and an associated liability for the amount it may have to pay.

If the Company enters into transactions whereby it transfers assets recognised on its balance sheet but retains either all or substantially all of the risks and rewards of the transferred assets, the transferred assets are not derecognised and the proceeds received are recognised as a collateralised borrowing.

f) Offsetting

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount presented in the balance sheet when, and only when, the Company currently has a legally enforceable right to set off the amounts and it intends either to settle them on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

The reason for the increase in PAT margin is increase in Total income because of increase in other income resulting in an increase in Total Income by Rs. 97.36 Lakhs but a small increase in total expenses by Rs. 68.04 Lakhs relatively.

FISCAL ENDED MARCH 31, 2023, COMPARED WITH THE FISCAL YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2022 (BASED ON RESTATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FISCAL YEAR MARCH 31, 2022 COMPARED WITH THE FISCAL YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2022 BASED ON RESTATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS)

Revenues

• Total Income

Total Income for the Financial Year 2022-23 stood at Rs. 5,815.51 Lakhs whereas in Financial Year 2021-22 it stood at Rs. 5,981.52 Lakhs representing a decrease of 2.78%.

Reason: The capacity utilization in FY 2022 was 6,978.85 Metric Tonnes, representing 86.91%, whereas in FY 2023, it decreased to 6,688.28 Metric Tonnes, or 83.29%. Despite this 3.62% reduction in capacity utilization, the revenue from operations remained nearly the same between the two fiscal years. This indicates that although revenue from operations was Rs. 5,733.83 Lakhs in FY 2022 and Rs. 5,777.70 Lakhs in FY 2023, the capacity utilization decreased. This was primarily due to an increase in the sale price per unit of output, which rose from approximately Rs. 80 in FY 2022 to around Rs. 85 in FY 2023.

Further, the prices of recycled fibres range from Rs. 65 to Rs. 110 per kg depending upon quality and availability and pricing of raw material. Some fibers that trade at higher rates is extremely difficult to manufacture with very few players who are able to supply regularly the fiber of premium quality. Our Company is a key player in the Fibre market where we manufacture majorly two types of fibres, Hollow & Solid. Hollow Fibre which is used in industries like home furnishing, mattresses, furniture, cushions, toys etc. is typically more difficult to make than Solid Fibers which is used in industries like moisture insulation, filters, layers, and rope production. Thus, because of the quality of Hollow fiber and industry it caters to allows it to demand higher rate than Solid Fibers. Our company has made significant strides in establishing the product portfolio for the Hollow Fibers under which the process of manufacturing requires for the machines to operate at a bit slower speed to ensure the quality. The production output may reduce a bit but it is offset by the higher pricing from market. The reduction in production is natural consequence of manufacturing Hollow Fiber over SOLID Fiber. Also, the company is still fulfilling orders of Solid Fiber but only for the premium varieties of solid Fiber.

Additionally, Other Income for FY 2023 saw a significant decline compared to FY 2022. It dropped from Rs. 203.82 Lakhs in FY 2022 to Rs. 81.69 Lakhs in FY 2023, with the major reductions occurring in Government Grants and Commission Income. As a result, the decrease in Other Income in FY 2023 has contributed to a decline in the company's Total Income.

• Revenue from operations

Revenue from operation for the Financial Year 2022-23, stood at Rs. 5,733.83 Lakhs whereas in Financial Year 2021-22 it stood at Rs. 5,777.70 Lakhs representing a decrease of 0.76%.

Reason: Revenue from operation decrease primarily because of decrease in sales of goods in domestic as compared to previous financial year. Revenue breakup of the same is as follows:

(Amount in Lakhs)

Particulars	FY 2023	%age	FY 2022	%age

- Other Income

Other Income for the Financial Year 2022-23, stood at Rs. 81.69 Lakhs whereas in Financial Year 2021-22 it stood at Rs. 203.82 Lakhs representing a decrease of 59.92%.

Reason: This was primarily due to a significant decrease in commission income, which was 59.10 lakhs in FY 2021-22 and nil in FY 2022-23, as well as a decrease in grants, which were 143.07 lakhs in FY 2021-22 and 60.98 lakhs in FY 2022-23.

Reason: The decrease is on account of the decrease in Cost of Material Consumed, Finance costs and other expenses. Decrease and their respective change is as follows:

(Amount in lakhs, except %)

Particulars	FY 2023	%age of Total Income	FY 2022	%age of Total Income

Total Expenses	5,515.45	94.84%	5,909.26	98.79%

• Cost of Material Consumed

Cost of Material Consumed including change in inventory for the year ended March 31, 2023, stood at Rs. 5,097.04 Lakhs which represents 87.65% of Total Income whereas in year ended March 31, 2022 it stood at Rs. 5,482.13 Lakhs which represents 91.65% of Total Income. This represents a decrease of 4.10%.

Reason: The Cost of Material Consumed has decreased as a %age of Revenue from Operations by 6% and 4.10% as %age of Total Income. This is due to the fact that the Average Selling Price of each kg of fiber had increased by 6% i.e. from Rs. 80 per kg to Rs. 85 per kg.

• Employment Benefit Expenses

Employee benefit expenses for the Period ended March 31, 2023, stood at Rs. 96.52 Lakhs whereas in FY ended March 31, 2022 it stood at Rs. 85.52 Lakhs representing a, increase of 12.87%.

Reason: There was an increase in 'Employee benefit expenses' because of increase in staff welfare expenses and other expenses such as gratuity, ESI, and provident funds.

• Finance Cost

Finance Cost for the Period ended March 31, 2023, stood at Rs. 56.33 Lakhs whereas in FY ended March 31, 2022 it stood at Rs. 75.69 Lakhs representing a decrease of 25.58%.

Reason: There is a decrease in the finance cost of the company due to decrease in the long-term borrowing of the Company.

• Depreciation and Amortization Expenses

The Depreciation and Amortization Expenses for the Period ended March 31, 2023, stood at Rs. 150.27 Lakhs whereas in Financial Year 2021-22 it stood at Rs. 141.69 Lakhs representing an increase of 6.05%.

Reason: Depreciation and amortization expenses have been increased because of the acquisition of the fixed assets by the Company.

• Other Expenses

The Other Expenses for the Period ended March 31, 2023, stood at Rs. 115.28 Lakhs whereas for FY ended March 31, 2022 it stood at Rs. 124.22 Lakhs representing a decrease of 7.20%.

Reason: The major decrease in other expenses is from General Expense, Rent, Rates, Fees and Taxes, Legal Expenses, Carriage Outward. Decrease and their respective change is as follows:

(Amount in lakhs)

Carriage outward	23.77	33.65
Year on Year Increase/(decrease)	(29.36%)
General Expenses	0.05	3.63
Year on Year Increase/(decrease)	(98.62%)
Legal Expenses	1.81	2.95
Year on Year Increase/(decrease)	(38.64%)
Rent	1.23	2.84

Year on Year Increase/(decrease)	(56.69%)
Rates, Fees and Taxes	0.42	8.96
Year on Year Increase/(decrease)	(95.31%)

- Restated Profit before Tax

In line with above discussions, the restated profit before tax increased significantly increased by Rs. 227.81 Lakhs from Rs. 72.26 Lakhs in FY ended March 31, 2022 to Rs. 300.07 Lakhs for the FY ended March 31, 2023.

- Tax Expense

Our total tax expense also accordingly increased by Rs.64.54 Lakhs from Rs. 19.35 lakhs in FY ended March 31, 2022 to Rs. 83.89 Lakhs in FY ended March 31, 2023

- Restated Profit after Tax

For the various reasons stated above and adjustments of tax expense, Our Restated profit after tax increased by Rs. 163.27 Lakhs from Rs. 52.91 Lakhs in FY ended March 31, 2022 to Rs. 216.18 Lakhs for the FY ended March 31, 2023.

Profit after tax for the year ended March 31, 2023 was Rs. 216.18 Lakhs i.e. 3.72% of Total Income and for year ended March 31, 2022 was Rs. 52.91 Lakhs i.e. 0.88% of Total income. The reason for increase in PAT for the periods is as follows:

The company was able to generate incremental revenue per unit sale price of output goods from ~Rs. 80 per kg to ~Rs. 85 per kg. Thus, if we take an effective increase in sales i.e. Rs 5 per kg on sales price of Rs. 85 per Kg. i.e. 5.88%. Also, we if take into consideration the raw material, it has stayed at approximately Rs. 55 per kg. If we take both things into consideration, the benefit of Operational Expenses could be catered by this increase in per unit sale of finished goods.

(Amount in lakhs)

Particulars	Amount

	FY 2023	FY 2022

PBT (including Other Income)	300.07	72.26
Total Income (including other Income)	5,815.51	5,981.52
PBT Margin	5.16%	1.21%
Effective Change	3.95%

If we analyze Table 1, the increase in Profit Before Tax (PBT) is primarily due to an improved gross margin at the operational level, driven by an increase in the sale price per unit of finished goods. A cumulative rise of approximately 6% in the sales price has directly contributed to the higher Gross Margin at the cost of goods sold (COGS) level. When examining other items before EBITDA, such as employee costs and other expenses, there is only minor fluctuation, given that the capacity utilization has not increased. Additionally, the company's purchase of assets has led to higher depreciation, and the repayment of borrowings has resulted in lower financial costs.

In Table 2, it's important to note that the PBT margin (including Other Income) shows a variance of only 3.95%, compared to a 6% variance in Table 1. This 2% difference is due to a decrease in Other Income in FY 2023. The key differences in Other Income for FY 2023 are attributed to a lack of commission income, which was received in FY 2022 but not in FY 2023, and a reduction in government grants.

1. Raj Kumar S/O Deep Chand Jain Vs Proma Industries Limited

Court Name:58-Civil Judge (Junior Division) Ludhiana

Case No.: CS/22377/2023

Fact of the case: Raj Kumar jain is contesting a demand notice issued by Proma Industries Limited for Rs. 55.90 Crore, claiming it to be illegal, null and void, among other things. The plaintiff contends that the demand notice is based on a loan account of defendant no. 4 (Girnar fibers limited), which the plaintiff had guaranteed. However, the plaintiff argues that the loan was settled in full through a one-time settlement policy with defendant no. 2 (IFCI) in 2008-2009. Furthermore, the plaintiff alleges that the demand notice is time-barred and not supported by any contractual agreement between the plaintiff and defendant no. 1 (Proma Industries Limited) The plaintiff seeks various reliefs from the court, including a declaration that the demand notice is illegal and void, a permanent injunction against the defendants from claiming any amount, and a mandatory injunction directing defendant no. 1 to issue a "No Dues Certificate."

Brief of the case: Raj Kumar Jain is seeking to be released from his personal guarantee related to a Rs. 409 Crore loan extended by IFCI to Girnar, which was later purchased by Proma Industries Limited in 2009 and to avoid liabilities arising from the loan, Raj Kumar Jain has filed a case requesting the return of his personal guarantee. He argues that his obligation should not extend to the loan's current status under Proma Industries Limited's ownership.

Current stage of the case: Case is at the stage of filing of written statements by defendants

Next date of hearing: 04.10.2024

2. Gulshan Kumar Jain Vs Proma Industries Limited

Court Name:54-Civil Judge (Junior Division), Ludhiana

Case No.: CS/22508/2023

Fact of the case: Suit initiated by Gulshan Kumar Jain against several parties, notably Proma Office Industries Limited, Industrial Finance Corporation of India (IFCI), and others, concerning intricate matters surrounding loans, guarantees, non-performing assets, and purported coercion. Kumar Jain's plaint meticulously articulates the factual landscape, encompassing intricate details of loan agreements, subsequent settlements, and alleged coercive measures orchestrated by the defendants. The plaint vehemently implores the court to grant a permanent injunction, restraining the defendants from asserting any claims against the plaintiff. Additionally, it fervently requests a declaration affirming the absence of any outstanding amounts owed by the plaintiff. Furthermore, the plaint advocates for the issuance of a mandatory injunction, mandating the provision of a "No Dues Certificate" as per a prior court order. Simultaneously, an application for interim/ad-interim injunction supplements the plaint, pressing for expeditious judicial intervention to restrain the defendants from making any claims against the plaintiff pending the final adjudication of the suit.

Brief Facts of the Case: Gulshan Kumar Jain is seeking to be released from his personal guarantee related to a Rs. 409 Crore loan extended by IFCI to Girnar Fibers Limited, which was later purchased by Proma Industries Limited in 2009. Case filed to avoid liabilities; Gulshan Kumar Jain is requesting the return of his personal guarantee. He contends that the current obligations under Proma Industries Limited's ownership of the loan should not apply to him.

Current stage of the case: Case is at the stage of filing of replication

Next date of hearing: 01.10.2024

3. Jatinder Jain Vs Proma Industries Limited

Court Name:54-Civil Judge (Junior Division), Ludhiana

PHASED IMPLEMENTATION OF UNIFIED PAYMENTS INTERFACE

SEBI has issued UPI Circulars in relation to streamlining the process of public issue of equity shares and convertibles. Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, UPI will be introduced in a phased manner as a payment mechanism (in addition to mechanism of blocking funds in the account maintained with SCSBs under the ASBA) for applications by RIIs through intermediaries with the objective to reduce the time duration from public issue closure to listing from six Working Days to up to three Working Days. Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI Mechanism, the UPI Circulars proposes to introduce and implement the UPI Mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

- a. Phase I: This phase was applicable from January 01, 2019 and lasted till June 30, 2019. Under this phase, a Retail Individual applicant, besides the modes of Bidding available prior to the UPI Circulars, also had the option to submit the Bid cum Application Form with any of the intermediary and use his / her UPI ID for the purpose of blocking of funds. The time duration from public issue closure to listing continued to be six Working Days.
- b. Phase II: This phase commenced on completion of Phase I i.e. with effect from July 1, 2019 and was to be continued for a period of three months or launch of five main board public issues, whichever is later. Further, as per the SEBI circular SEBI/HO/CFD/DCR2/CIR/P/2019/133 dated November 8, 2019, the UPI Phase II has been extended until March 31, 2020. Further still, as per SEBI circular SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2020/50 dated March 30, 2020, the current Phase II of Unified Payments Interface with Application Supported by Blocked Amount be continued till further notice. Under this phase, submission of the Application Form by a Retail Individual Applicant through intermediaries to SCSBs for blocking of funds will be discontinued and will be replaced by the UPI Mechanism. However, the time duration from public issue closure to listing would continue to be six Working Days during this phase.

- c. Phase III: This phase has become applicable on a voluntary basis for all issues opening on or after September 1, 2023, and on a mandatory basis for all issues opening on or after December 1, 2023, vide SEBI circular bearing number SEBI/HO/CFD/TPD1/CIR/P/2023/140 dated August 9, 2023 ("T+3 Notification"). In this phase, the time duration from public issue closure to listing has been reduced to three Working Days. The Issue shall be undertaken pursuant to the processes and +3 Notification as applicable, subject to any circulars, clarification or notification issued by the SEBI from time to time, including any circular, clarification or notification which may be issued by SEBI.

All SCSBs offering the facility of making applications in public issues are required to provide a facility to make applications using the UPI Mechanism. Further, in accordance with the UPI Circulars, our Company has appointed Axis Bank Limited as the Sponsor Bank to act as a conduit between the Stock Exchanges and NPCI in order to facilitate collection of requests and / or payment instructions of the Retail Individual Investors into the UPI mechanism.

Pursuant to the UPI Circular, SEBI has set out specific requirements for redressal of investor grievances for applications that have been made through the UPI Mechanism. The requirements of the UPI Circular include, appointment of a nodal officer by the SCSB and submission of their details to SEBI, the requirement for SCSBs to send SMS alerts for the blocking and unblocking of UPI mandates, the requirement for the Registrar to submit details of cancelled, withdrawn or deleted applications, and the requirement for the bank accounts of unsuccessful Bidders to be unblocked no later than one day from the date on which the Basis of Allotment is finalised. Failure to unblock the accounts within the timeline would result in the SCSBs being penalised under the relevant securities law. Additionally, if there is any delay in the redressal of investors' complaints in this regard, the relevant SCSB as well as the post – Offer BRLM will be required to compensate the concerned investor.

SEBI through its circular (SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2022/45) dated April 5, 2022, has prescribed that all individual investors applying in initial public offerings opening on or after May 1, 2022, where the application amount is up to Rs. 5,00,000, shall use UPI. Individual investors bidding under the Non-Institutional Portion bidding for more than Rs. 200,000 and up to Rs. 5,00,000, using the UPI Mechanism, shall provide their UPI ID in the Bid-cum-Application Form for Bidding through Syndicate, sub-syndicate members, Registered Brokers, RTAs or CDPs, or online using the facility of linked online trading, demat and bank account (3 in 1 type accounts), provided by certain brokers.

The processing fees for applications made by Retail Individual Bidders using the UPI Mechanism may be released to the remitter banks (SCSBs) only after such banks provide a written confirmation on compliance with SEBI Circular No: SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/P/CIR/2021/570 dated June 2, 2021 read with SEBI Circular No: SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL2/CIR/P/2021/2480/1/M dated March 16, 2021.
