- Margin for the quarter excluding Row came in at 10.8% which remained flat owing to positive impact by INDAS116 which was completely offset by adverse impact of exchange rate (30bps) and 100bps due to reduction in utilization.
- □ PAT for the quarter was at Rs 75.7crore, a de-growth of 8.5%QoQ (absolute term USD1million impact)mainly owing to reduced other income and also marginal INDAS116 impact which was partially offset by increase in exchange gain.
- □ Digital continued its growth momentum in 1QFY20 by growing 6.7%QoQ primarily driven by company's Return on digital next offering in application and cloud infrastructure services business .lt now contributes 48.5% of total revenue.
- ☐ The company won TCV of 160 mn in 1QFY20, thus taking LTM booking to USD 700mn+ . Overall pipeline continues to remain solid and is now above USD1.1billion as of date
- □ Vertical wise, growth was seen in Financial service which grew 8.2%QoQ in cc terms, followed by Hitech and Manufacturing up by 5.8%QoQ However Retail and Consumer Services declined 10.2%QoQ in cc terms mainly owing to impact in legacy retail business.

View and Valuation

Zensar reported mix set of numbers in its 1QFY20 result .Revenue grew 3.1%QoQ while Pat declined 8.5%QoQ owing to lower other income. The company posted strong growth in IMS business on back solid growth from CIS(grew36.5%QoQ) and Cloud infrastructure business(grew by 15.3%QoQ) while application posted moderate 1.1%QoQ growth due to weakness in core application (de-growth of 1.1%QoQ).

Going ahead, We believe growth will continue in FY20/21E led by better Digital traction, ramp-up in deals win and healthy pipe-line (winning average TCV of USD150-200 million every quarter). Also the growth is expected to be supported by Cloud and Digital led next gen business(grew35.6%QoQ in current quarter) as management has planned to inch up the core CIS share to 20-25% of overall revenue over the next three years. However some concern still persists with continued weakness in retail segment.

Post 1QFY20 result, we have reduced our revenue and PAT estimates by 2%/6% for FY20 which led to revision in our target price from Rs252 to Rs238, while recent correction in prices has resulted in change in our rating from Neutral to Accumulate.
