1QFY20 Result update

- HCLTECH reported mix set of numbers in its 1QFY20 result. Revenue stood at USD 2364 million( in line with our estimates ), a growth of $4.2 \%$ QoQ in cc terms while PAT misses our estimates by $8 \%$ and declined 12.5\%QoQ to Rs2230crore mainly owing to higher tax rate and lower operating income.
- EBIT for the quarter stood at Rs 2835 crore, a de-growth of 7\%QoQ.EBIT Margin shrank 180bps to $17.1 \%$ (vs our expectation of 100 bps decline) primarily led by multiple factors like visa cost, higher SG&A and Forex headwind. However major drag came from lower profitability in Engineering Services where the company had one write-off, investments and also onsite centric deal ramp ups.
- Segments wise, IT and Business services grew 3.6\% QoQ in cc terms, while Engineering and R&D Services and Products & Platforms grew by 5.6\% and 7.0\% QoQ in cc terms during the quarter.
- For FY20, the company has maintained its revenue guidance of $14.0 \%$ to $16.0 \%$ in Constant Currency seeing the client specific issue and macro challenges that are playing out around the world. However, it now expects organic growth to be 8-10\% ( $1 \%$ higher), offset by lower inorganic contribution due to one month's delay in the integration of IBM IP purchases.

View and Valuation

HCLTECH started the year which solid revenue growth of $4.2 \%$ QoQ While Margin dropped 180bps owing to lower profitability in engineering services business. Going forwards, we believe HCLTECH will manage to clock revenue growth of $14 \%$ to $16 \% \mathrm{YoY}$ as guided by the management .Organic revenue is expected to post industry leading growth in FY20 owing to continued ramp up of large deal wins. Also improvement in inorganic growth is expect to be seen during the course of the year as revenue from recent acquired IBM IP will start to flow in (some portion in 2QFY20 and will see full impact from 2HFY20) thus implying further improvement in overall revenue going ahead.

On margin front we expect the company to meet midpoint of margin guidance (18.5\% to $19.5 \%$ ) as continued investments to build up digital capabilities and SG&A pertaining to IBM IP will hold back margin expansion in FY20.

Post result, we have slightly reduced our PAT estimate for FY20 by 2\% considering higher tax rate. Thus We largely maintain our target price of Rs 1202 and recommend Accumulate.

Key Risks to our rating and target
Slow growth in order book and weakness in IMS.

[ Geography wise, Americas led the growth by growing 11.7\%QoQ in cc terms mainly on the back of large deal that the company won in last quarter resulted on big uptick in US. Europe was soft and declined 8\%QoQ. However grew double digit in YoY as large deal went into steady state and that's what is reflected in these numbers. ROW has some contribution from India. But overall, ROW's performance has been soft (declined 10.6\%QoQ in cc terms). But the management expects it to pick up in the coming quarters.

Investments impacted the overall margins

E EBIT for the quarter stood at Rs 2835 crore, a drop of 7\%QoQ.
$\square$ EBIT Margin shrank 180bps to $17.1 \%$ (vs. our expectation of 100 bps decline) primarily led by multiple factors like visa cost, higher SG\&A and Forex headwind.However major drag came from lower profitability in Engineering Services where the company had one write-off, investments and also onsite centric deal ramp ups.

- PAT during the quarter was at Rs2230crore, declined 12.5\%QoQ mainly owing to higher tax rate and lower operating income.

Concall Highlights

$>$ Geography performance: Americas grew $21 \%$ year-on-year. Europe grew $11.3 \%$ and rest of the world was more or less flat. The growth in US came on the back of large deal that the company won in last quarter resulted on big uptick in US. Europe was soft and declined 8\%QoQ. However grew double digit in YoY as large deal went into steady state and that's what is reflected in these numbers. ROW has some contribution from India. But overall, ROW's performance has been soft. But the management expects it to pick up in the coming quarters.
> Vertical performance: The Company saw strong growth across verticals. Manufacturing and technology led the growth by growing $28 \%$ YoY followed by Retail and CPG grew $22 \%$, Life Sciences $16 \%$, energy utility, about $18 \%$. Financial Services while the growth is broad based however due one client issue it has a resulted in downward impact on the financial services vertical. The management expects FS and manufacturing to continue to see the client specific issue in 2QFY20 however expects H 2 or from 4QFY20 to see some growth coming from Financial service.
> Margin performance in 1QFY20: EBIT margins were flat on a YoY basis and dropped 180 bps QoQ. The margins were largely in line with what the company had expected for various reasons in this quarter. The drop in margins were mainly attributable to four factor;1)forex headwind impacting 15bps;2)higher visa cost(15 to 20 bps impact);3) 50 bps impact in the SG&A which is largely investment made for the HCL software revenues to start flowing and taking charge of the front end of the market in that business;4)additional 110bps impact in ERS business. Good momentum in Mode 2 and Mode 3 ,as 20 bps increased in the mix. It's now 29.7\%, which is again a 300 bps growth from the previous quarter last year
$>$ Rise in ETR: The effective tax rate has gone up this fiscal to $24 \%$, which is largely driven by the consummation of the seven software products acquired from IBM and its related accounting. ETR is expected to remain in $24 \%$ range.
> New launch: the company launched HCL software. This is the new business unit for software products, which is really starting up of all the IBM IP partnerships and the acquisition which got consummated on the 1st of July. The company has also increased focus and footprint on the cyber security business by launching a cyber security fusion center, which is already off to some a very good start with clients, including government client in the state of Texas.
$>$ Deal wins: 12 transformational deals won during the quarter. Financial services were a good contribution here. Of course manufacturing and retail, other segments, which were the top three in terms of contribution to the transformational deal
> IBM deal payment: The consideration fIBM deal is kind of fixed consideration of 1.6 billion for which half of that has already been paid out and the balance USD812 out of that fixed consideration will be paid on the June 30th next year. The second component there is the USD150 million, which is earn outs, which are payable in next three installments.
> Demand environment: Over the demand trend remain mixed .In terms of vertical there is some slowness seen in decision making but they are more project type of work where there could be some delays. However the company sees enough opportunities in traditional business.
$>$ Outlook for FY20: The Company remained conservative seeing the client specific issue that persists and macro challenges that are playing out around the world. Thus the company maintained its revenue guidance of $14.0 \%$ to $16.0 \%$ in Constant Currency. Organic business to grow $7 \%$ to $9 \%$ as previously stated however due to delay in deal execution, inorganic expected to grow 6\%mark(earlier 7\% mark) .Composition of Organic growth to be higher than inorganic part. The management remains cautiously optimistic and expects to deliver an industry leading organic growth in FY20.Operating Margin (EBIT) for FY20 expected in the range of $18.5 \%$ to 19.5\%.
