- HCLTECH reported a healthy revenue and Pat growth. Revenue for the quarter grew $6 \%$ QoQ in cc terms to USD2486 million which is in line with our estimates of USD2483million. Growth in revenue was mainly driven by ramp up of new deal across verticals and also aided by consolidation of the IBM product acquisition which brought USD107million during the quarter.
E EBIT during the quarter posted a strong growth of $23.9 \%$ QoQ.EBIT margin touched $20 \%$ range which is expansion of 278bps (above our estimates of 150 bps ). Higher margins were driven by benefit from absence of one-time investments in 1QFY20 (210bps positive impact), SG&A efficiency (70bps positive), lower visa cost and lower amortization (combined 50bps impact).
- PAT for the quarter came in at Rs 2651 crore, a growth of 18.9\%QoQ.Higher pat growth was mainly owing to higher operating income

Broad based growth across segments

The company reported a broad based growth across its segments with strong revenue coming from Products & Platforms business which grew 57\%QoQ in USD terms (as expected) mainly due to IBM product consolidation. On the other hand, Engineering and R&D (ERD) clocked a healthy growth of $5.2 \%$ QoQ growth while IT and Business Services saw 0.2\% QoQ USD revenue decline mainly reflecting pressure in traditional services. Even vertical wise, Financial Services grew 16\%QoQin USD terms , Telecom, MP&E was up by $10.4 \%$ in USD and Retail & CPG increased 10.7\% QoQ in USD terms.

Margin to contract in $\mathbf{2 H}$

The company posted solid margin execution during the quarter. Margin for the quarter expanded 278bps to $20 \%$ largely driven by integration of higher-margin IBM IP products and lower amortization recognized by the company in its Products and Platforms business. However as the amortization rate is expected to increase in 2H, EBIT margin will likely to contract in 2 H . Thus management has also maintained its margin guidance ( $18.5 \%$ to19.5\%) seeing the margin pressure. Even for FY21, the increase in R&D spend will hold the margins in $18 \%$ range.

Raised revenue guidance

The company has raised its FY20E revenue growth guidance to $15-17 \%$ from 14-16\% earlier, with $10-11 \%$ being organic and $5-6 \%$ being inorganic growth. EBIT margin guidance is maintained at $18.5-19.5 \%$.

View and valuation

HCLTECH has reported a healthy growth in both its revenue and margins in 2QFY20. Organic revenue grew $14 \%$ YoY mainly led by ramp up of new deal wins(Nokia, Broadcom and Xerox) while margin reached $20 \%$ range largely driven by integration of higher margin business( IBM products). Going forwards, we believe the HCLTECH will ${ }^{r}$ manage to clock industry leading growth among peers driven by strong organic growth with continued deals ramp up. Also inorganic growth is expect to inch up in 2 H as focus on renewals will support growth.

However, on margin front ,we expect higher amortization and R&D spend will drag the margins in 2H, thus overall FY20 margins is expected to land in lower end of the guidance(18.5\%to19.5\%).
Factoring in near term margins pressure we have largely kept our estimates unchanged for FY20 and increased PAT by 3\%for FY21.Thus we largely maintain our Accumulate stance on the stock with the target price of Rs1227.

Key Risks to our rating and target

Slow growth in order book and weakness in IMS.

- Continued drag on organic growth.

- Seasonality of software business is expected to come down going forward as earlier it was largely driven by IBM's sales cycle.
